THE BRISTOL NEWS

I. C. FOWLER, ENITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 10, 1880.

The NEWS has been entered as second class matter at the Bristol, Tennessee, Post Office.

THE Funders are par excellence the champions of party loyalty. Now won't they cut a pretty figure championing NEWBERRY, the champion bolter of the Dist.? They profess to be the defenders of a sound currency. Won't they distinguish themselves astride of NEWBERRY who has the two year old paint of flat money clinging in clumsy cy to which they are unwilling to plunge public debt. They oppose flat money, they oppose party defection, and they propose to vote for Sam NEWBERRY. They oppose readjustment and propose to label NEWBERRY a Readjuster and vote for him. They may do all this. They may whitewash and paint up all the political "rips" they can find, but they can't fool the Readjusters of this Dist. into voting for a man who never struck a blow for readjustment. It just comes to this, that if a man is to be elected by Readjusters he must be a Readjuster-he must have done something to bulld up and preserve that party. He must have been bruised and wounded in convince the people that FULKERSON'S sion. Close up Brethren! election was a triumph of the Readjust-

THE STATE furnishes a short list of "chosen chiefs of readjustment" who, it says, support the May ticket, and includes the names of Judge Lybrook, Mr. John L. Warts and ten others. The value of the State's classification may well be regarded suspiciously when the public is informed that of its "chosen" twelve is Sam't H. NEWBERRY. If NEWBERRY ever struck a blow for readjustment we should be glad to have I should never look for another. time space and manner specified. Judge LYBROOK and Mr. Warrs are, beyond habits, true as steel and always at his doubt, supporters of the July ticket, so the STATE's chosen chiefs are reduced just one fourth. We might go still further and strike off the name of MR. FICKLIN, who voted for the McCulloch the party, but long before the party Bill, and thus reduce the chosen twelve to eight, but it is unnecessary to say or do more than point to NEWBERRY in that crowd. That is enough!

In order to show the STATE that we are willing to "tote fair" we will suggest that it fill one of these vacancies with the name of Ex-Gov. McMULLIN.

JOHN PAUL was nominated last Thursday by acclamation for Congress-and he will give long John Harris the heaviest lift he has had for that office. We bet a quarter that by the time PAUL gets up off him he will no longer be a readjuster "in the cool."

WHOOP-E! The confoundedest luck in the county of Knox, right under the custom house itself-for Sheriff Anden-Readjuster should be guilty of, son, Democrat, beats Gossett, RepubliBut if the people of the Ninth Dist. son, Democrat, beats Gosserr, Republican, one vote. Fraud? Eh?

Dr. Tanner's Triumph.

Dr. Tanner closed out his forty days fast last Saturday at noon, and at once proceeded to take a glass of milk, folproceeded to take a glass of milk, fol-lowed by a slice of watermelon. A few and especially by - The Valler. hours afterward he chewed a piece of beef steak, being careful to swallow nothing but the juices. When he first touched food he exclaimed "you may think this isn't good." The case is without doubt the most singular and remarkable of the age. Tanner is now quite famous, and is "a bigger man than old Grant." During the 40 days he drank all told 610% bunces of water, an and got a delegation half low tax-half Corn-White average of almost a pint per day, though | high tax. there were eleven of the forty days during which, he 'drank no water at all .- to Rogersville to go for that noble old It must be now apparent he is much corded the nomination. ahead of Garfield as a lion, and the Republicans would do well to run him for the Presidency.

The Responses.

The Readjuster, s meeting at Lexingwould come pretty near being a wasp in Ran Tucker's hands. As a model of energy and irrepressible activity he would render the people of his Dist. perhaps more service than Tucker with his broad pital, N. Y. gauge train of 1776.

THE Alabama Greenback boom exploded at the polls last week. The Greenbackers united with the Republicans, and the result was the most tremendous daubs all over him? The facts seem to Democratic victory of the age. The mahe that there is no depth of inconsisten- jority is from fifty to sixty thousand. Thus ends the first round for GARFIELD. rather than yield a readjustment of the The Kentucky election went largely Democratic, of course.

> The meeting of the Readjusters in Russell last Tuesday went all one way. FULKERSON spoke and Russell appointed Delegates for him. In Wise Co. the meeting declared for JUDGE KILGORE, but the delegates after a complimentary yote for him will go for FULKERSON.

DR. TANNER may boast of having surpassed other men, but the editor of this paper is 120 square meals ahead of him, and there is no rubbing out that fact.

For the Bristol News.

Mr. Editor:-I learn from the papers that Col. Fulkerson, the old war-horse of Readjustment, is a candidate for nomination by the Readjusters convention in the Ninth Congressional District for Congress, I know but little about your local affairs, and do not propose to say a word against any aspirant in your district. If, however, I was in your district and Col. A. Fulkerson's name was placed before me

He is a man of decided ability, of unswerving integrity and unexceptional No people need be afraid to trust him, and any people might be proud of him as their representative.

He is no "eleventh hour" readjuster. He was not only at the organization of was organized-in the darkest days of our cause, when friends were few and timid, and foes were numerous and arogant; when it required true heroism and girls.
